Convoyer's Report: We arrived on site at 1.30am and watered the birds before turning in for sleep at 2.15am. Rose at 5.30am and topped up water. At 6.15am I consulted the race advisor. The weather on site was fine and dry with clear visibility. There was plenty of blue sky with fluffy clouds and there was a light SW wind. It was decided we would aim for a 7.30am liberation but, after cutting the strings the liberation occurred at 7.35am. All except a small group of about 50 birds cleared the site immediately and the small group disappeared after about 3 minutes. A number of local fanciers were on site and witnessed the liberation – I would thank them for the assistance they gave us.

Martin Pike – Chief Convoyer
