Convoyer's Report: Arrived on site at 12.30am – placed water before the birds before turning in. Rose at 5am and topped up water - liaised with the race advisor. Weather was fine and was warming quickly. There was no wind. Set rocket off and liberated at 6.30am. Birds immediately split into smaller groups but all except one group cleared well. The last group cleared after 5 minutes.

I have read the Secretary's report from last week. I agree with what he has said except, as with this week we let a rocket off before liberation (much to the annoyance of a lady walking her dog!) and the birds again split into smaller groups before clearing.

Martin Pike
