Convoyer's Report: Having loaded the birds on to one vehicle at Radstock, we arrived on site at 2am where I ensured the drinkers were filled before turning in. I rose at 5am and topped up the drinkers before speaking with the race advisor at 5.15am , We agreed that, in view of the expected heat on Saturday, we would go for an early liberation depending when the Scottish birds were liberated at Bedhampton. They were going at 6am so we decided to go at the same time. The birds were liberated in full sunshine and cleared well. There was no wind.
