Convoyer's Report: We arrived at Portsmouth docks at 1.45am and watered the birds. We boarded the ferry for the 8.15am sailing and on arrival at Caen at 2pm the drinkers were still half full. On arrival on site at Messac at 6.15pm the birds were fed and watered. I liaised with the race advisor. We agreed that because the forecast was set fair for Saturday we should liberate as early as possible. I would be informed if the forecast had changed. Next morning we rose at 5am and checked the water before the birds. The weather was perfect with a cloudless blue sky and a light northerly wind. We liberated at 5.45am and the birds cleared immediately towards the north.
