Race Advisor's Report: Friday 13th July: Liberation was at 6am. No wind on site.

The route through France is forecast to be clear and sunny with a light breeze from the North or North East. Some light cloud in the afternoon as the birds should get nearer to the coast. Temperatures are forecast to be a maximum of 26°. A clear channel should face them with a moderate North East breeze. South of England and Wales is said to be hotter at 28° with the wind changing to between South east and South West, but very light. There is a warning of isolated thunderstorms in the South of England and Wales from 11am until late evening.

Good luck to all

Clive Merrills (Central Southern Classic FC)
