Convoyer's Report: Arrived on site at 2am, went to bed down for the night. Got up at 6am and watered the birds, weather was awful with visibility of around 10 metres. The weather remained bad all day until it started to brighten up at 3pm. Just as we had accepted the possibility of being held over we were given the go ahead to liberate. We liberated at 4.20pm with 85% cloud cover with a mixture of white and grey clouds, however the cloud was high and visibility was very good. Wind was approx. 5mph from the south west. The birds left the transporter and circled once before heading home.
